

2009 Award Recipients

Shavonne Washington is widely recognized for her artistic abilities and her art has been displayed at the downtown Library, the Thomas Center, and the Downtown Arts Festival. Shavonne offers her time, energy and talent to the children participating in programs at the Rosa B. Williams Recreation Center.

Olexis Ellis volunteers in the Gainesville Recreational After School Program at the Rosa B. Williams Recreation Center and Rawlings Elementary School. Olexis grew up in Gainesville and is serving the community by helping children learn the value of recreation. His commitment to volunteering epitomizes the spirit of the Ray Massey Award

Kenneth Floyd has been a part of the Gainesville Recreational After School Program since he was five years old, and Kenneth has generously shared his time, energy and talent with the children who participate in programs at the Rosa B. Williams Center.